WELCOME TO KRAKÓW

The 67th International Congress of Meat Science and Technology will take place in Kraków in August 23-27, 2021. The Congress focuses on presenting the latest findings in specific scientific disciplines, critically reviewing the work done in the various fields, and updating the latest knowledge on current issues that are most relevant for meat as food. We are starting to send you newsletters, in which we will inform you about the progress in preparations for the congress.
